I want to thank you personally for your recent gift to Middle Tennessee State University. I am always encouraged by the generosity of our donors. As MTSU continues to face new challenges, private support from our alumni and friends remains pivotal to our success. We are committed to building on the University's tradition of excellence while simultaneously responding to a rising demand for the services we provide.

With increasing frequency, MTSU is garnering national attention for the excellence and uniqueness of its programs. This national spotlight enhances our growing reputation as a destination university for students from throughout the Southeast and across the nation. As we attract new students to campus, we are redoubling our commitment to enhancing our academic programs and providing a student-centered environment.

I cannot imagine a more exciting place to be than at MTSU during this era of progress. The University has achieved remarkable momentum from our recent successes, and we are determined to capitalize on that momentum. The institution's extraordinary potential is palpable on campus. I invite you to visit and observe firsthand the transformations that are moving the University steadily forward.

Thank you for sharing my vision for MTSU. Your gift helps us sustain the momentum created by the recent accomplishments of our faculty and students. Please let me know if I can answer any questions you have or assist you in any way.
